Cedarhurst, with its ups and downs, its green grass, its cedars, its ocean landscape and cosy cottages, is a charming spot. In some respects it is quite English. he handsome and bold young gentlemen riders have acceeded in imitating their transatiantic cousins in nearly everything except riding. The distances run are "about" six furiongs, or "about" one mile, as the case may be. No time is taken. Even the familiar face of the clock that so long decorated the bell-post oppusite the judges' stand has been removed in order that there may not be the slightest suggestion of time. Nothing could be more English. The paddock parade led by the red-coated hunt servant on his gray hunter is a thing of beauty, and the patrol judges are an unmitigated joy. The races appear to be of the processional order. Unlike the English, who possess the faculty of waiting, the Cedarhurst gentleman rider strives to get off in front, and when once under way rides as if the bottomiess pit were yawning after him. His sole object is to get there. What does he care for a finish? See him dashing homeward, coming with his hands, cibows, shoulders, head, body, knees, feet, whip, spur and every other force that an accomplished jockey can muster. It is rare sport.

Nothing could be funnier than a pozo pony dispute over three or four furiongs of turf. In the first race yesterday the pride of F. Gebhard's stable sailed away from Volunteer as if he were the Thistle. Volunteer carried an able crew in Mr. Morris, but seamanship failed to help him along. The four opponents ran before the wind going up the hill and were soon strung out. Orphan Boy tacked at the furiong and skimmed along like a thing of life. Weathering the turn into the homestretch Mr. Keene threw out his balloon-jib and soon had along the day tacked at the furiong and skimmed along like a thing of life. Weathering the turn into the homestretch Mr. Keene threw out his balloon-jib and soon had along the helm down. Fifty yards from home be took it and from Batter-st. had such a soft thing in the second race that he started for the fourth. But here he met a Peet who was not only born and made, but very much prached up. The Poet won by a nose.

The Aldernan from Batter-st. had such a soft thing in the second race that he started for the fourth. But h nearly everything except riding. The distances run are "about" six furlongs, or "about" one mile, as the case may be. No time is taken. Even the familiar

THE AMERICAN JOCKEY CLUB'S FUTURE. THE AMERICAN JOCKEY CLUB'S FUTURE.

Ex-Judge A. C. Mouson, who returned from Europe on the imbria, was seen at yesterday at the American Jockey Club soms and was asked if he had anything to any relative to the stice given the Jockey Club by the Jerome Park Villa Site improvement Company to the effect that the tenure of the strome Park Race Course by the Jockey Club must cease in teen menths' time. "I have, as you know," said Judge omeon, "just arrived from Europe and beyond the fact that dice has been served on us and that by the terms of the new lease recently executed we must give up our tenure in fitteen months after the date of the notice I know nothing definite. I suppose we shall call a meeting of our members shorily and talk over the matter, but at present nothing has been decided upon so far as I know."

Do you know why the notice was given ? was asked.

"Realiv. I do not," said Judge Monson smiling. "but I suppose the Villa Site Company wast to run things themselves. I hope they may succeed if that is the case.

It is said that the notice was served upon the jockey club when the Pool vill became law, just before the spring meeting began.

DISQUALIFICATION.

SARATOGA, Aug. SO.—Referee, the despised ontsider, took up 146 pounds and ran away from overburdened Tennessee, the top heavy favorite in the North American Handicap Steeplechase. Both were brought here for the express purpose of winning the race, being withdrawn from stakes at Cedarhurat. Hercules came up also, but after covering the first half uniterance which was never in the hunt so long as his opponents also dup. And Garrison, too, was here, but the "Snapper" failed to score. Thus ends the Saratoga racing season.

D. A. Honig's gelding Gray Cloud galloped off with the first race at the confortable odds of 7 to 1. The judges placed him first, and Littrell second, their numbers were run up on the telegraph board and bets were paid accordingly. Sometime after the race this announcement was made.

The race is taken away from Gray Cloud because an allowance was claimed to which the horse was not entitled. Therefore the purse goes to Littrell and the entrance money to Harry Glenn. All bets, however, go as the horsee passed the post,

EX-ALDERMAN JACOBUS ROBBED.

BURGLARS RANSACK THE HOUSE WHILE THE FAMILY SLEEP-PROPERTY WORTH $500 GONE. Ex-Alderman John Wesley Jacobus went to sleep n his house, No. 16 Morton-st., in a hap; y frame of mind on Monday night. His wife and daughter had got home from the country, bringing their servant and the family Skye terrier, and Mr. Jacobus telt that he could enjoy home comfort again. The trunks of Mrs. and Miss Jacobus had not got to the house yet, but the failure of the expressman to bring them did not disturb Mr. Jacobus's serenity. He siept soundly alt night; too soundly in fact, to, he failed to hear the tarking of the Skye terrier in the back yard. When the tamily got up yesterday morning and Mr. Jacobus began to dress bimself, he missed his gold watch and chain and $160 in bank notes from his tronsers pockets. It did not take him long to discover that thieves had been in the house. They had even that thieves had been in the house. They had even taken a r volver from under his pillow as he slept and had searched all through his bedroom. Several articles of jewelry belonging to his wife and daughter were missing.

In the dining room and pantries down stairs the Ex-Alderman John Wesley Jacobus went to sleep ticles of jewelry belonging to his wife and daughter were missing.

In the dining room and pantries down stairs the thieves had made an exhaustive search with wax candles, droping melted wax over the carpets on their way and leaving everything in disorder. In one closet they had set fire to paper on a shelf and had extinguished the blaze before it was necessary to call the firemen. They sound some articles of silverware in the dining-room and took them away. Mr. Jacobus escertained that the burglars had got into the basement through a rear window. They had cut out a pane of glass in order to get at the window tastenings.

Mr. Jacobus reported the burglary at Police Headquarters yesterday and said the thieves had carried away property worth about $500. His wife and daughter were glad that their trunks were not taken home on Monday night. Inspector Byrnes will try to extend the burglars.

DIVORCED FROM A WIFE WITH SEVEN SONS. Absolute divorce was granted by Judge Clement in the City Court, Brooklyn, yesterday, to Jesse Combs from Mrs. Zillah Court, Brooklyn, yesteriay, to Jesse Combs from Mrs. Zillah Combs. The co-respondent was Frank P. Harris a cousin of the defendant. The parties to the sait were married in 1863, and have seven sons. They lived happily until 1884, when Harris make hits home with them. He and Mrs. Combs were seen under suspicious circumstances by her closes son, who drove Harris out of the house and truet to shoot him. Some time afterward he met Harris on the street and shot him in he hip. He had young Combs arrested, but the matter was never pressed. Mrs. Combs went to live with an uncle, but he soon found reason to have her leave his house. She is said to be living with Harris in Herkimer-st., Brooklyn. No defence was interposed in the suit.

CENSURING A CONTRACTOR FOR NEGLIGENCE. Coroner Eidman held an inquest vesterday in the case of Bernard Blessing of No. 208 East One-hundred-and-eighth-st. The jury in their vested consured Thomas Armstrong, the contractor, judging from the evidence that the work which he superintended was not carried on with audiciant precautions.

NOT A RUN FOR THE HOOSIERS. NEW-YORK MEN WIN ANOTHER GAME.

CONTEST WITH LITTLE INTEREST IN IT-ONLY TWO RUNS FOR THE LOCAL TEAM.

James Mutrie, in the vernacular of baseball, has now the title of a tricky manager. This is not said with critical intent, but simply because it is a fact. A little more of the same kind of spirit among the New-York players might be a blessing, indeed, to the New-York club. Manager will be a blessing indeed, to the New-York club. Manager will be founded. might be a blessing, indeed, to the New-York club. Manager Fogel, of the Hoosier baseball team, will in future watch the local manager with the alertness shown by the traditional cat atter a mouse. The more youthful manager got a lesson in baseball diplomacy yesterday and he will have the most kindry feelings for the rival manager for some time in consequence. Manager Fogel put in Leitner to pitch for his club, supposing that Titromb was to perform a like service for the New-York nine. He says that the veteran Boyle would have pitched had he any idea that Welch was to be put up before his batters. Manager Mutrie thought yesterday a poor time to experiment with new pitchers. Titcomb will have a chance to show what he can do to-day, when a defeat will not be so cosily. It is doubtful whether Boyle could have done as well as Leitner did under the circumstances.

The 2,470 spectators who witnessed the game of baseball at the Polo Grounds saw a contest of rather machine.

The New-York and Indianapolis ciubs will play an exhibi-tion game at the Pole Grounds to-day. Titcomb and Murphy will form the "battery" for the local club.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 30.—Both McCormick and Casey pitched good ball to day. Twenty of the Phillies and seventees of the visitors were put out on files. Pittsburg sorrelies only run in the third on Carroll's hit, which was fumbled by Wood, a passed ball and a wild throw to the plate by McLaughlin. The Phillies scored three unearned runs to the sixth on a single by Andrews, Fogarty's base on bails, an out, a wild throw by Whitney and a hit by Giements. Farrar made a homerun in the eighth. AN ORIGINAL METHOD OF HIGHWAY ROBBERY. Edward Domphy, age seventeen, of No. 57 Downing.st., a Edward Domphy, age seventeen, of No. 37 Downing-M., a driver for a mattress manufacturer, was a prisoner at Jefferson Market Police Court vesterday. On Sunday afternoon he pulled the coat off Robert Tarlion, of No. 12 Downing-st, and field. On Monday while Tarlion was walking along Hudsonst, near Houston-st, he felt a sudden jerk and found himself again without a coat. Domphy's method is to approach a man from behind and selting the garment by the bottom pull it over the victim's head. After a chase he was captured by Detective Severeool, of the Eighth Precinct. Justice Duffy committed Domphy for trial.

HE SAYS THE PISTOL EXPLODED BY ACCIDENT. It is expected that the advisory committee will report at a church meeting early in October what steps are best to be taken in the matter of supplying the multip permaently. the pulpit permaently.

THE TESTIMONY IN THE IVES CASE. All the witnesses in the Ives reference case except the three partners themselves signed their testimony yesterday at ex-Judge Davis's office. According to yesterday at ex-Judge Davis's office. According to the order of Judge Larremore the reteree will have to turn in the testimony of Ives, Stayner and Doremus unsigned. Judge Bookstaver will then hear arguments on the question of admitting that part of the evidence resulting from the reteree's questions. It was said at ex-Judge Davis's office that the testimony—12s type-written pages in all—would be handed in to the court to-day. WAS THE FAILURE AN HONEST ONE!

C. M. Rothschild & Co., of No. 4) White st., failed in March last for $150,000. They confessed judgments for $80,000, and last for $150,000. They confessed judgments for $80,000, and when the ordinary creditors came in they found nothing left to attach. Since then the principal creditors have been working to see who the firm housetty owed. Since the assignment abraham Rothenlid has resumed business in the old quarters under the name of Meyer Rothschild & Co. Meyer Rothschild is the father of the young men, and does business in Cincionati. It is charged that the failure of C. M. Rothschild & Co. was not an honest one. that so use of the goods were shipped away by the old house and brought back after the new firm came into existence. Some of the creditors procured attachments and Sheriff Grant placed two of his deputies in the store.

ACCUSED BY HER DAUGHTER OF STEALING. ACCUSED BY HER DAUGHTER OF STRALING.

The strange spectacle of a daughter having her mother tried in a police court was seen before Police Justice Walsh, of Brooklyn, vesterday. Mrs. Lydia Hampson was the complainant, and Mrs. Mary Jane Hurst the defendant. The former accused the latter of larceny in stealing her welding-ring. It appears that she married in oppositionto the wishes of her friends and while discussing her marriage at the house of a friend with her mother, sister and brother, as he dropped the ring. Some one picked it up and sand, "I have it." The daughter claims that her mother dook it. Her sister and brother testified that her mother did not pick up too ring. The hearmer was adjourned. Justice Walsh said it was singular for a daughter to try to send her mother to Jail.

CAPTURE OF AN ITALIAN COUNTERFEITER. Pasquella Coupi, age nineteen, an Italian living in Thompson-st., was arraigned at Jeffer on Market Police Court yes son-al, was arraigned at Jeneron sarket rocks tours year tarriay on the charge of having passed two counterfeit silver dollars. Count for the last two months has been flooding the Eighth Ward with counteriest money, and his arrest the police think will lead to many others. The prisoner refused to tell where he lived, no doubt the place where the counterfeit money is being manufactured, but the police are confident they can discover the house. The counterfeiter was sent to the United States Commissioners by Justice Duffy.

CONSIDERING THE TAX LEVY. ive of $2,500,000 which comes from the General Fund. The tax on real and personal property to meet this amount is $2 16 per $100. The rate for 1838 was $2 20. NEWS FROM THE SUBURBS.

COMMITTING AN OFFICER FOR CONTEMPT.

Patroiman Thomas Harty, of the city police force of Leng Island City, was arrested yesterday on a warrant issued by Justice Delchanty charging him with contempt of court in refusing to take George Lordsy. Lucas was one of the men captured in the other prisoner, before him when cordered to do so on the contempt. Lucas was one of the men captured in the file of the bookmakers at Blissville, who had been held for his Grand Jury by Mayer Gleason. After the Mayor close the court, bondamen appeared before Justice Delchart to furnish the required bail for Lucas, and when the prisoner help the truth of the prisoner had been to the prisoner he refused, saying that the Mayor had ordered him not to do so thiese he (the Mayor) was present. Harty was arraigned before Justice Delchanty in the Police Court yesteriay, and upon his refusal to make any plea or excuse, on advice of counsel, he was sentenced to the county jail for five days and to pay a fine of $25. Corporation counsel Foster, who appeared for Harty, at once went to Brooklyn to obtain a writ of habeas corpus from a Supreme Court Judge, in order to secure the release from custody of the patrolusa.

Lucas, the prisoner whom Harty refused to produce, was taken to Brooklyn on a writ of habeas corpus issued by Justice Bartlett vesterday, and released on $500 bail. It is understood that eleven of the persons who were fined by Mayor Gleason on Sakurday night will appeal and demand the return of their mostey, alleging that the Mayor had no authority to impose or collect fines, his statutory powers being limited to commitments. SCHOOL TRUSTEES SUDDENLY CHANGE FRONT.
The trustees of the Broad-as, public school, at Stapleton,
S. I., at a meeting on August 12 unanimously resolved to reengage G. W. Robinson, principal of the school, and Clara L.
Tobias, assistant, and the clerk was ordered to have the contracts filled out and signed. This was done. On Acquait 15 trustees Dwyer and Burke held another meeting, O'Hanlon being absent. Burke moved and Dwyer seconded him, that that part of the minutes which referred to the re-engagement of Robinson and Miss Tobias be stricken out and the circ directed to inform them that they were not engaged. Professor Robinson says he will present himself for duty on opening day.

UNION HILL.—Manile Kont, age sisteen, a daughter of a liquor dealer in Herman-ave, disappeared on Monday. John Guynan. a boarder in the house, went away on the same day.

ELIZABETH.—As the 5 o'clock Long Branch train on the Pennsylvana Ratiroad from this city crossed the North Broad-st crossing last night, it struck a bugzy in which were Dr. Berry and his wife. The doctor by whipping up the horse barely got over, the engine striking the hind wheels and demolishing them.

CRANFORD.—John Isemmann has begun suit against the Central Railroad of New-Jersey for $10,000 damages, in consequence of injuries received by him in April while alighting from a train at Crantord. He sileres that no lights were at the platform of the car, nor a brakeman to attend to passengers; and that the train slarted before the passengers had gotten off. Several other passengers were hart but mone so seriously as Mr. Isemmann, who was confined to his house several weeks. The case will be tried before Judge Bradley in the United States Circuit Court.

Fivshing.—Chief Engineer James McCormack yesterday made an inspection of hotels and found that the Monument House. Hamburg House and Figshing Hotel were the only ones affected by the law passed by the last Legislature. He ordered the proprietors of these places to furnish each bestroom with rope fire escapes.

STOCK BROKERS WANT AN EXTRA HOLIDAY. to request the Governing Committee to adjourn the board on Saturday. Labor Day occurs on Monday, and as the Hait-holiday law restricts business to two hours on Saturdays, the brokers were decidedly of the opinion that they could spend their time to better advantage on Saturday than in walking up and down the board-room floor. They adopted a resolution to the effect that the Exchange should be closed from Friday to Thesday. A special meeting of the Governing Committee will be held to-day to act on the request. It is not certain that the decision will be favorable. On the one side is the precedent of an adjournment on the Saturday before the Fourth of Juir, and on the other the formal vote of the committee within the year that the Exchange would never again be closed except on legal holidays. The first may not be the last exception. to request the Governing Committee to adjourn the

Charles H. Smith, clerk for a furniture dealer named James G, Patton, in business at No. 2,069 Third-ave., and City Marshal James S. Manchester were held in the Harlem Police Court by Juntice Welde yesterlay for trial on a charge of larceny. Margaret Knowiton, of No. 1,914 Third-ave., purchased furniture valued at $45 of Patton, and subsequently purchased a second lot worth $55. She paid the $45 bill in full, but fell into arrears on the $55 one. The bills were lumped together and she was credited with what she had paid as so much on account. Upon the strength of this manner of reckoning Cierk Smith and Marshal Manchester called upon her and stripped the house of all she had purchased.

Tam a wood-carver by trade and live in East One-hun dred-and fifty-soventh-st. I had always been a strong, well man. I had my first attack of malaria in 1880, with headaches, loss of appetite and ambition, chilly sensations, fever, yawning and stretching, etc. I began taking quinine and kept on for about four years, getting weaker and worse all the time. I had dumb ague in its worst form. It was like fire in a burning coal mine. In March, 1884, I knocked off work and went home to die. Then followed two years of perdition on earth. I could scarzely walk, yet I often took thirty grains of quinine at a dose. The effect of this was to make me nearly wild. It broke up my sleep and I often staggered about the floor all night in a state of intense nervous irritation. From 175 pounds (my proper weight) I ran down to 97 pounds—the weight of a light girl—and was scarcely better than a skeleton.

If anybody had killed me with a hatchet I should have been better off. My physician said: "Mr. Miller, I can't do you any good. I might pour pounds of quinine down your throat and it wouldn't help you."

Three weeks afterward—the last of May—I gave up all other medicine and began on Kaskine. In one week I was better. I began to sleep, to have an appetite, and to gain strength, and in one month I was back at my work. I have got back my old weight, and since then I have never lost a day from sickness. never lost a day from sickness. Frederick A. Miller, 630 East 157th-st., New-York.

doubted merit, will be sent on application.
